

IACAA Annual Convention COVID-19 Code of Conduct

Submission of registration implies commitment to adhere to this COVID-19 Code of Conduct

To keep myself, fellow attendees, staff, and our communities safe and comfortable, I agree to adhere to the following protocols and behaviors as part of my participation in IACAA's Annual Convention:

Before the Event

I will follow the relevant guidance provided by the CDC, my local authorities, Illinois local authorities, Springfield local authorities and IACAA. I understand this may include proof of a negative COVID-19 test, proof of vaccination. I will evaluate my own health as well as that of the people I am in close contact with and contact IACAA if I have any concerns. I will stay home if I feel sick.

During the Event

I will follow all guidelines provided by the CDC, my local authorities, Illinois local authorities, Springfield local authorities, the hotel, and IACAA. I will engage in everyday preventative actions recommended by the CDC including washing hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds and/or washing hands often with an alcohol-based sanitizer with at least 60% alcohol; avoiding touching eyes, nose, and mouth with unwashed hands; covering my nose and mouth when coughing or sneezing; throw used tissues in the trash.

I will maintain social distancing (6 ft apart) whenever possible. I agree to alert the Partnership if you begin to feel unwell during the event. I will respect the personal space and boundaries of other attendees, staff, and exhibitors.

After the Event

I will contact the IACAA if I test positive for COVID-19 in the 5 days following the event. In the event I do not comply with COVID-19 Code of Conduct, I understand that my continued participation at the Annual Convention will be at the discretion of IACAA.
